John McCullough Overtaken by Paresis and His Permanent Retirer CHICAGO, Sept. 30 .- Hundreds of people wended their way to McVicker's Theatre to nated for congressman-at-large by acclama- McCullough's impersonation of the Gladiator tion. He accepted in a brief speech. The electoral ticket was then nominated and in darkness. This afternoon Messrs. Brooks, be cancelled. They found the veteran man ager in the same frame of mind and it was decided to cancel all dates and send the company to New York. Notices were ac cordingly sent at once to the theatres interested and to the printers, newspapers and bill posters. All this was done without corattitude on the same question. It was a sultation with Mr. McCullough and it was great hit and the straightouts followed it up decided not to break the news too suddenly sultation with Mr. McCullough and it was with a motion to adjourn sine die. This was to him. An hour or two later Mr. Keene defeated and a motion to take a recess until the tragedian, who had been taken into the onfidence of Messrs. Brooks and Price, met Mr. McCullough on the corner of State and Monroe standing in the shade un der a big umbrells and seemingly having no purpose in view. There was no rain nor sign of any. The couple greeted each other cordially. McCullough said he was going to rehearsal, that he had made a terrible break

"They say I'm a dying man," he said bittermenced. It was soon seen that actor was totally unequal to the role of the Gladiator. Then Richelieu was tried with the same result. At this point Mr. McVickar came on the stage and with Mr. Brooks delicately announced the determination which had been arrived at. To their surhave continued the season would have been to threaten his sanity and his life. It is as nundred persons. No Hopes of His Recovery-His Dea Mr. Minott E. Osborn was extremely ast night at his residence, No. 154 Olive street, and was expected to survive at the most but a few hours. At three o'clock he was still sinking, The news of his hopeless adition will bring sorrow to many hearts to whomthe deceased was personally endeared by long acquaintance and friendship and his warm heartedness, honor, and other lovable traits of character. He was taken seriously ill about two weeks ago and only a few days since was thought to be recovering unfavorable change intervened which he has gradually failed. His health had not been good for several years and his last illness took the form of brain fever and seemed to be a culmination of various diseases or a breaking up of the system. His physicians, Drs. C. A. Lindsley and C. P. Lindsley and r. Levi Ives, who was the consulting physi-

speech, said that the virtue of the fireside and the holiness of the family altar would make James G. Elaine the President of the republic. Hundreds crowded forward to shake hands with Mr. Blaine. The reception committee from Springfield joined the party at Urbana. At 5 o'clock the train stopped at Springfield, Clark county. Upwards of forty thousand people were assembled. Great enthusiasm prevailed. Mr. Blaine was taken to a platform on Market Square, from which he addressed the people, saying:

I have the pleasure of addressing a community devoted to industrial pursuits, a community of the committee of the first bedone in case they were called upon for margins beyond their power to put up. The result was that Simmons wired Gould for funds and the latter responded in an order upon the strongest bank in Chicago to draw on his account $2, 500, 000. As it happened, however, margins were not called. It is understood that the clique realized $1,500,000 net and that the deal will be carried in October, on which dealers are already selling a million bushels short.
